General Information

Passwords are case sensitive.

Installation

Macintosh

Insert disc.

Copy file to the location of your choice (Applications folder is probably the best location).

Unzip the file (double click).

Windows

Insert disc.

Open disc.

Double click the Install file. Follow the on screen directions.

Access

Macintosh

Double click on the dictionary application to start the reference section.

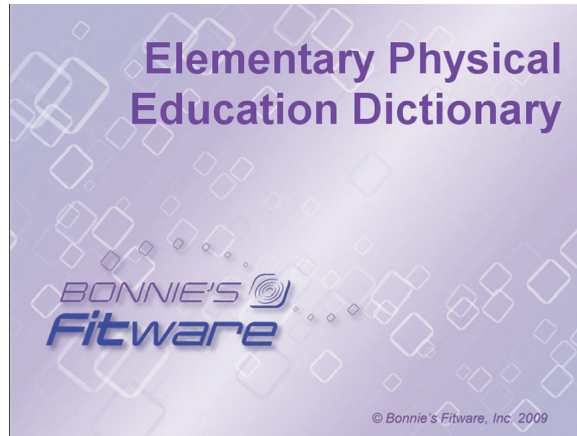

Windows

Select start menu - select "Dictionary."

Teacher Access

You have purchased a single copy license - this may go on one computer. If you are interested in multiple copies - please purchase a Site License (4x the cost of one copy).

1. After starting the program you will see the opening screen. Click on “Go” to continue.

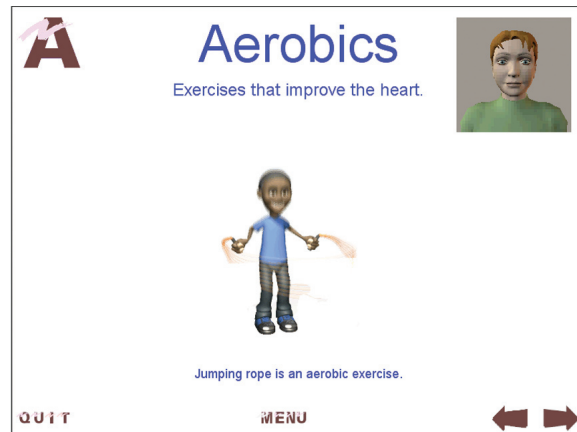

2. This is the menu screen - from here you can access all words that begin with a particular letter.

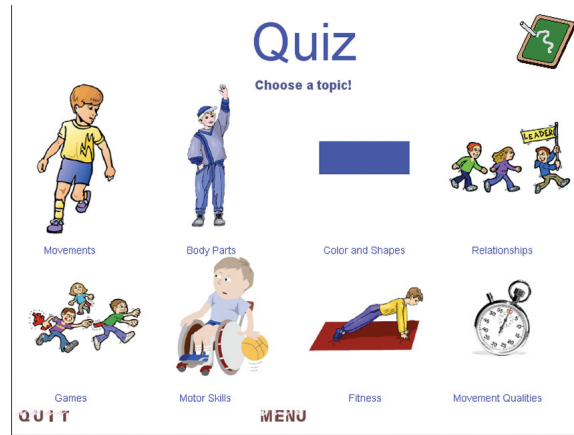

3. After clicking on a letter, you are taken to a screen that contains all the words starting with that letter. Sometimes there are two or three screens that contain words starting with the letter. You can use the right and left arrows to access additional screens.

4. Clicking on a words takes you to the pronunciation, definition, and use in a sentence screen for that word. Click on “Quit” at anytime to exit the application. Clicking on “Menu” at anytime takes you back to the menu. Clicking on the right or left arrow takes you to additional words in alphabetic order.

5. Clicking on Quiz in the Menu Screen takes you to a “practice quiz.” Here you can choose from eight different practice quizzes. Simply click on the word or picture.

6. When taking the quiz - click on the picture that best depicts the word.
